

Please allow XM and Sirius satellite radio to continue bringing their full slate of offerings to their subscribers. This is effective modern technology that Congress should be encouraging, not limiting on order to prop up ineffective broadcasting.